The purpose of BAYTAF is to provide a process for youth track clubs in Hillsborough County to gain access to high school track and field facilities for organized practice. This agreement provides access to the track and field areas only. The Club may negotiate other amenities directly with the school.

Please comply with the requirements below:

- Complete and attach the Hillsborough County Parks, Recreation and Conservation Department registration form.
- Provide the approved AAU and/or USATF club membership for the application year.
- Provide verification of background check compliance for all coaches.
- Provide the club schedule. The Club agrees to coordinate with the school's head track coach all practices so there are no conflicts between schedules.
- The Club must gain consent for the school's head coach and the parent of any child they wish to work with or coach.
